

News of the Day ; Speak from the university

Students of Islamic Azad University, Tehran Central Branch, have issued a statement and call to action condemning violence and security crackdowns within the university environment, while emphasizing the right to peaceful protest. In the statement, the events of Dey 1404 are described as “unforgettable.”

The call urges students of Islamic Azad University branches across the country to gather on Saturday, February 28, 2026, at 12:00 PM, in front of their universities’ central buildings to voice their protest against what has been described as “systematic repression.”

دانشگاه آزاد اسلامی

Political Prisoners

Concerns are growing over the condition of political prisoners whose lives are at risk and about whom no information has been released.

Human rights activists are calling for immediate transparency, access to legal counsel, and guarantees of their health and safety.

Ahmad Hezbavi
His life is in serious danger

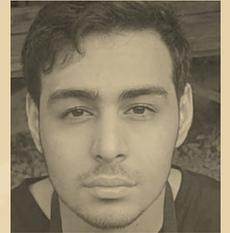

Sasan Pakravan
His life is in serious danger

Melika Azizi – Imprisoned in Lakan
Prison – There is no information about her whereabouts.

Ali Fahim,
His life is in serious danger

Mohammad Amin Biglari,
His life is in serious danger

Fariba Ghahremani
His life is in serious danger

Zahra Gholamdoost
His life is in serious danger

Saeed Zarei
His life is in serious danger

Shahin Vahedparast Kalur
His life is in serious danger

Eternal Names of Iran

Citizens who are killed in silence

Death of 19 Year Old Abdollah Porkar After Arrest

Soran County, was arrested on February 17, 2026, in Mehrestan by plainclothes intelligence forces.

Two days later, his body was returned to his family and transferred to the Zahedan Forensic Medicine Department for autopsy. His family has filed complaints in civilian and military courts and is pursuing legal action.

A Wound on the University

University in Violence’s Shadow

Gholam Ali Hashemifar Lost One Eye

Gholam Ali Hashemifar, a PhD student, lost the sight in one of his eyes following the events of Dey. Critical sources have attributed responsibility for this injury to the government and its affiliated forces.